Modeling: 5-10 minutes

- Model writing each letter on the Letter Poster pages, one at a time, using brightly colored markers or crayons. As you write the letter, say the number count of the strokes out loud.
- After each letter is written on paper, have students follow along with you as they write the letters in the air. Students should also say the number count of the strokes.
- Save these posters to display in the classroom for student and teacher reference.

Guided/Independent Practice: 10 minutes

- Teacher and students complete page 5. As the letters are traced, say the counting strokes out loud.

Assessment (during Guided/Independent Practice)

- While completing page 5, the teacher monitors the students' practice and gives guidance and correction as needed.
- Take note of the students' struggles and successes to help guide future lessons.

Closure: 5 minutes

- Show the letter and picture flashcards while saying the letter name, letter sound, the picture name, and stroke count while air writing. Students repeat.
