 - Teacher: “/b/ /b/ tub.” Since the word ends with the /b/ sound, walk like a crab.
- Show the students a picture card that ends with the m sound.
 - Teacher: “/m/ /m/ ham”. Since the word ends with the /m/ sound, slam your feet on the floor.
- Repeat as many times as necessary with different picture cards.

Guided Practice: 5-7 minutes

- Spread all the picture cards out from this lesson and any other picture cards on the floor.
- Play Flyswatter Game.
 - Give two students a flyswatter.
 - The students walk around the pictures that are placed on the floor with the flyswatters behind their backs. Make sure they are not walking on the cards, but around them in a circle.
 - Teacher calls out either the /b/ or /m/ sound. The students search for a card that ends with that sound and hits it with their flyswatters, saying the word as they do.
 - Give the flyswatters to two new students and start again.
- Continue play until all the cards have been swatted or all the students have had a turn.
